Please come and join the Chicago marine community on this exciting and informative day. This year's event will bring you all the latest updates on Coast Guard regulatory issues, expectations, and standards for the 2010 sailing season. As usual there will be a general session in the morning and early afternoon focusing on items of interest to all marine operations in the MSU Chicago zone. The afternoon will be filled with breakout groups and training for the specific entities that make up our unique Chicago maritime community.

This year's programs will address current topics of importance to all:

What is the ISMA?

The International Ship Masters' Association functions as the representative of all Great Lakes mariners in many important ways. Through meetings, committees, newsletters, and communication between members, ISMA informs and educates its members on issues of vital concern to mariners. And through the respected ISMA name, mariners of all levels have a collective voice when critical decisions on maritime affairs are made by government. The Association plays a cooperative role with the Canadian and U.S. Coast Guards and various other maritime organizations and associations.

Regular Membership is open to all U.S. and Canadian licensed or documented mariners with recommendation from a current member in good standing.

Associate Membership is also available for non-licensed individuals in marine or marine related activities. Please see a member for more information.
